DECATUR HIGH SCHOOL ★ DECATUR, INDIANA

OLD CENTRAL BUILDING

LINCOLN BUILDING

OUR PRESENT HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

WE HAVE RECORDED FIFTY YEARS WITH

Ravelings

These are the three buildings that have been the home of the D.H.S. "Ravelings." It was begun in 1910 in the old Central Building that was located where the present high school building now stands. In the fall of 1918 the high school was moved to the new building at Fifth and Adams, now known as Lincoln Building. As the school population grew, and buildings became unsafe, Central Building was razed to make room for the present high school building. It was occupied in the fall of 1939 as a Junior-Senior High School.

An adequate picture of old Central was difficult to find. The picture reproduced above was on a colored postcard that had been mailed March 2, 1915 by a young lady of Monroe to a girl friend in Hicksville, Ohio. A group of hunters found the card, along with a few others, in an old, abandoned house in Ohio, and brought it back to Mr. Brown. You see, in this picture, the iron fence that once surrounded the school yard.

Golden Memories

The first attempt of the Decatur High School to publish a paper was made about 1897, when W. F. Smith was principal and Miss Mary A. Johnson was head of the English department.

The paper was printed on four sheets of pink paper, and was called "The Aurora." After it was published for about two years, it was dropped and nothing further was done along this line until 1910. Then Miss Clara Williams revived the idea and began a publication called the "High School Student." It was published every six weeks. The staff consisted of Clem Steigmeyer, editor, and Lawrence Archbold, business manager. Other assistants were Matie Chronister, Orpha Sheets, Paul Meyer, Lillian Rice, Estella Perkins, Dorothy Dugan and Carl Beatty.

In 1911 the form was changed from a paper to a pamphlet, and the name was changed to the "High School Booster." That year the last issue was made larger, called the "Commencement Number" and thought of as an annual.

In 1914 it was decided to change the name of the paper. A contest was initiated and the name "Ravelings," submitted by Florence Cowan, was selected.

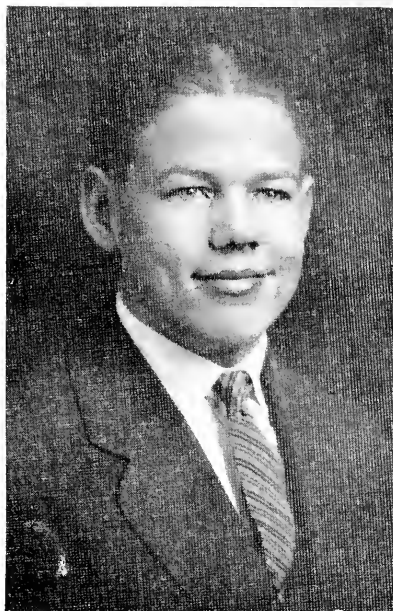

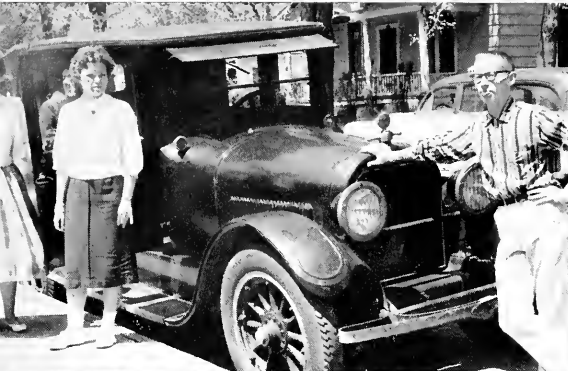

The pamphlet continued to be published several times a year with the last number the "Commencement Number" until 1920 when the pamphlet went into book form with one large issue each year. That has continued to be the policy to the present time.

Today

To give a better basis for comparison between the OLD and the NEW, we have printed, on many pages of this book, pictures of the yesterdays and today.

At the upper left Carol Norquest, Carolyn Steele, and Bruce Voshell inspect an old '23 Cadillac. In the lower picture Betty Haugk and Dave Sheets try out a '60 model of the same make car, while Terje Strom stands guard to protect it from over-zealous school-mates.

On the opposite page Judy Brodbeck and Ann Arnold show the old method of getting a drink at school, while Taya Ereksen and Jay DeVoss use the modern fountain at the present school.

Mr. Andrews as a D.H.S. graduate of 1925.

Coming to Decatur, after two years at Monroe, he became very active in D.H.S. He was center on both the football and basketball teams, winning an All Sectional in basketball in '25. He was in the Junior play in '24, the Senior play in '25, and a member of the '25 Ravelings staff.

and Yesterday

Mr. Brown during his early years at Decatur.

Mr. Brown came to the Decatur Schools in 1916, after having taught at the Irwin School and Monmouth. He began as Principal of the elementary portion of old Central School. This was made up of grades 5, 6, 7 and 8. In the fall of 1931 he was made principal of the High School and was moved into the Superintendency in 1951.

SOPHOMORES OF 1919

Below are two Sophomore groups. In the 1919 group notice the high laced shoes, the middie blouses with sailor collars, and the large, loosely knotted ties.

In the '23 group, note still some high laced shoes and, although these are Sophomores, some of the boys are still wearing knickers.

We haven't identified these people for you but you might be surprised at some of the names. For instance, Paul Spuller, now principal of Central High School, Ft. Wayne.

SOPHOMORES OF 1923

Still comparing the OLD with the NEW we have above a charming little kindergarten miss, Patty Thomas, sitting at one of the old time desks, and beside this Rudy Klein-knight and Shirley Harden demonstrate the new style desks of today's classroom.

Below Alice Allwein shows the use of the old style telephone while Barbara Burk goes ultra modern with the new base dial phone.

To the right is pictured the way some of us old timers came to school. We do not know who the man is, but I can well imagine Mr.

Ketchum, as a young man, all ready to give Dobbin the whip and start for school.

And then there is the way some of them come today. Of course they do not sit up on the back of the seat on their way to school, but Diane Rhodes, Carol Bebout, Paula Strickler, and Susan Mayclin did not want to be hidden from the camera by Becky Maddox, Carol Norquest, and Rosie Flora. Some of the boys, of course, do not drive such fine cars, and some of the cars driven are what could accurately be called "heaps."

of the Past

We present here some of the Decatur school leaders in the life of Ravelings. For two of these pictures we had to fall back on old year books. Mr. E. E. Rice was Supt. of Schools from 1909 to 1913. His picture was taken from the 1912 High School Booster, Commencement number. Mr. C. E. Spaulding followed Mr. Rice and was here from 1913-1916. His picture was taken from "The Columbian," high school yearbook of Columbia City, to which place he went after leaving Decatur.

Mr. M. F. Worthman stepped up from high school principal to the Superintendency in 1916 and served until his death in 1934. Mr. Walter J. Krick had been high school principal here and went to Van Wert as principal there. In 1934 Mr. Krick moved back to Decatur as School Superintendent and served until 1951 when he too died in office. He was succeeded by Mr. W. Guy Brown, our present Superintendent. Mr. Brown had served as Central grade principal, and high school principal before his election to the superintendency.

Miss Wemhoff is the only woman principal we have had in our high school, acting in that capacity from 1918 to 1920. She had been a teacher in the high school before becoming principal.

Fads and Fashions

When speaking of fads and fashions, just compare, or rather contrast, the dress of the Sophomores of 1914 with the other styles of dress shown here. In their long skirts and coats, the girls look more like middle aged ladies than high school sophomores. And how would our young men of today, with their low, soft, and often open collars, like to wear the high, stiff collars of that day.

Compare the dress of Kay Stoppenhagen and Diane Rhodes in their trench coats and sneakers. Compare also one of the most outstanding and characteristic of present day fashions, the crinoline underskirt. Monica Badenhop and Candy Johnson pose to give us a typical crinoline skirt picture.

In the upper right hand pictures, some of our Union township pupils and their bus driver posed for a picture. You will note that several of the girls, dressed in their normal school clothes, are wearing the famous fad of present day fashion, crinoline underskirts.

The first activity of the Junior Class of 1960 was to elect officers; John Cowan was elected president; Stu Knodel, vice-president; Taya Erekson, secretary; Ron August, treasurer, and Catherine Weidler, class sponsor.

The Juniors sponsored two after-game dances. The "Jacket Jive" during the football season and "Saturday Night Swing" during the basketball season.

Many Juniors have been active in such organizations as Choir, Commercial Club, Color Wheel, F.F.A., F.H.A. and Band. Many Junior boys are active members of the "D" Club.

On April 8, under the direction of Miss Weidler, we presented a class play entitled "Onions in the Stew."

We ended our school activities by entertaining the seniors at the annual Jr. and Sr. prom.

Last September, brand new sophomores entered the halls of D.H.S. to start the school year of 1959-1960.

The first thing we did was elect class officers as follows: president, Max Eichenauer; vice-president, Al Townsend; secretary, Susan Mayclin; treasurer, Diana DeBolt. Mr. Smith was elected class sponsor. The class officers represented the class on the Student Council.

We were very well represented on all of the athletic teams this year. Susan Mayclin, Diana DeBolt, Paula Strickler, and Nan Kelly were elected as second team yell leaders.

We had the pleasure of sponsoring two dances this year, both of which were very successful.

Many class members were on the honor roll, and we are very proud of them.

We wish to thank all the sophomores who made this year at D.H.S. very successful, and we are looking forward to next year as juniors.

On September 8, 1960, 112 Freshmen entered the halls of Decatur High School, to carry on their burdens as an important class. As sponsor they elected Mr. Butler, who, they thought, could best cope with their problems and ideas.

There were 20 students who upheld the scholastic ability of their class by having their name appear at least once on the honor roll.

The freshmen were notably sportsminded and athletically inclined. Bill Conrad, Steve Gause, and David Magley made the varsity football team. The basketball team had a 14 and 5 record, which indicated more success in the future for D.H.S. Twelve boys were on the freshman baseball team, while many others were on the track team, and two were on the golf team.

The Freshmen sponsored two dances this year, "Teen Beat" and "Cupid's Capers," the latter complete with hearts and dancing cupids.

We consider this first year in high school as a successful step up the ladder to future achievement.

The long awaited year had arrived, and we finally became a part of the daily routine in the high school building.

The school year started with the election of the following officers: Ann Allwein, president; Margaret Kocher, vice-president; Jane Burk, secretary, and John Beeler, treasurer. Mr. Abel was our class sponsor.

The eighth grade football team was undefeated with 2 victories and 1 tie. The basketball team had a successful season with 17 wins and 6 losses. Our cheerleaders were Donna Burk, Carolyn Cook, and Nancy Gerber.

Ann Allwein, John Beeler, Jane Burk, Kitty Harding, Margaret Kocher, and Steve Sheets served on the Student Council. This was the first year that eighth graders were allowed to vote for high school cheerleaders.

The eighth grade was well represented on the honor roll.

The annual class party was a big success and our final event of the year.

We are FRESHMEN at last!

BAND OF 1920

BAND OF 1926

Bands and band masters were not always high school people. The band pictured above was of the year 1920. The band opposite above is the 1926 or 1927 band. Its picture does not appear in any of the old Ravelings and its membership is not all high school people. It was not until 1937 that the band master became a member of the school faculty. The first such bandleader was Albert Sellmeyer.

The Girls' Band pictured below was developed under his leadership. It was the only Girls' Band in the state composed entirely of high school girls. This Girls' Band made a trip to Fort Wayne during the Northwest Territory Sesqui-Centennial, and to a Legion Convention parade in Chicago.

The band pictured at the bottom of the opposite page posed especially for a picture in this series for comparison. Some members were absent, but this is the Decatur High School Band of 1960 with band master, Mr. Clint Reed.

"D" CLUB

The "D" Club is an organization which began during the year of the Class of 1952. It consists of the athletes who have earned the right to receive "D" letters for participating in any of the five sports Decatur High has to offer. True to the past, this year's members, although slighted in the win column, are a fine bunch of men.

The annual "D" Club Banquet was held on April 23. The lettermen present and past, the Booster Club, and anyone interested in sports were honored to the fullest. The after-dinner speaker was Ted Harb, who, true to form, did a splendid job with the topic entitled, "If I Had My Life to Live Over." A free dance was held after the banquet, sponsored by the "D" Club.

Student Council

The Student Council exists to make D.H.S. a better school. The council's first activity was to elect the following officers: President, Jack Dailey; Vice President, John Cowan; Secretary, Taya Erikson. Amos Ketchum is our faculty advisor.

To better the appearance of our school, a committee was appointed to check the halls. All three floors were checked daily, and the winner was announced over the public address system at the end of the week.

One of our most important projects was trying to lay the foundation necessary to make D.H.S. an even better school in years to come. Several upperclassmen gave talks to underclassmen concerning such things as honesty, loyalty, cleanliness, and respect for property.

The Student Council was once again very successful this past year, and its influence will continue to grow in the years to come.

To give an adequate review of the activities and accomplishments of fifty years is a tremendous task. We cannot give it in complete detail, for that would require a large book in itself. As we rummaged through old editions of the Ravelings, the High School Booster, and packages of old pictures, we found so much of great interest, and yet such a limited amount of material that was actually usable, it was difficult to decide just what to include. The building of a regular Yearbook is quite a task, but the anniversary sections were a tremendous challenge. Oftentimes, in going through old Ravelings, we became so interested in the records of the past, we became lost to the present, and consumed a lot of extra time.

We hope that you will find both the 1960 sections of the book and the anniversary pages enjoyable and interesting. We have enjoyed the work involved in bringing this yearbook to you.

Choir

HELEN HAUBOLD
Director

Soon after school opened last September the choir elected the following officers: president, Joe Smith; vice-president, Jim Gay; secretary, Kay Wynn and treasurer, Larry Sheets.

Our first Concert was given at Open House in November. We presented numbers for the Rotary Club. At Christmas time the choir, along with the band, presented our annual Christmas program.

We, along with D.H.S. Band, entertained the Lions' Club with a program in February for our first program of the new year. On March 11, we held another one of our annual programs. This was, of course, the Music Festival along with the choirs of Berne and Bluffton.

We ended the year with the Pop Concert, which turned out to be a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

All in all, it has been a very enjoyable year, and the graduating seniors wish the best of luck to next year's choir and their able director, Miss Haubold.

The Decatur High School Band, under the direction of Clint Reed, had a very successful musical year. The Band consists of approximately 60 members, all of whom were eager to give their best.

Soon after the band was organized, the student directors were elected. Kay Wynn and Jack Dailey found this job to be quite interesting.

The band took part in several performances this year, including performances at football and basketball games, the Christmas program, and the April Pop Concert. The band, along with the bands from Berne and Bluffton, also participated in the Music Festival, which provided a very enjoyable entertainment.

The band and choir combined to give a performance for the Decatur Rotary Club early this year.

Certainly, this has been a profitable and successful year for the Decatur High School Band.

F.H.A. OFFICERS

Cassie Strickler, president; Donna Allison, treasurer; Diana Hill, vice-president; Paula Strickler, secretary.

F. H. A.

At the beginning of the year the F.H.A. held an annual election of officers.

We have had several teas for the faculty. The F.H.A. has also been in charge, on different occasions, of faculty and SCHOOL BOARD banquets. The junior F.H.A. members entertained with a breakfast for the Senior F.H.A. members. From time to time we prepared exhibits displaying various items made by the F.H.A. junior and senior class.

Color Wheel

The Art Club participated in many activities this year. During November we had an exhibit in the art room displaying the students' drawings. In December we were busy decorating the windows with Christmas scenes. We also painted scenery for the Christmas program. In April we had our Fine Arts Festival in collaboration with the band and choir.

Commerical Club

Organized soon after the beginning of school, the Commercial Club consists of beginning and advanced typing students.

The officers, who were chosen soon after the organization of the club, are as follows:

President Carol Bebout
 Vice-President Penny Longerbone
 Secretary Cassie Strickler
 Treasurer Sandy Baumann

One of the main projects of the Commercial Club is the production of the annual Gabfest, a publication on which the advanced class worked very diligently.

We would like to wish next year's Commercial Club much success in its endeavors.

Then and Now

The proscenium of our stage is much wider and much higher than that of Lincoln Building, and the stage has greater depth. The lighting has been much improved through the years.

Assemblies

We had three assemblies this year from the School Assembly Service: The Vocal Aires, an excellent negro quartet; Scott Morrison, a pianist and harpsichordist, and Lou Gaeta and his trained falcons.

From Indiana University: Prof. Eugene Bayless of the Indiana University School of Music sang for us. It was an excellent program.

From Indiana Tech; an instructor and team members demonstrated the technique of fencing.

Locally: Reverend Feller presented Reverend John L. Schmitt, the Spiritual Emphasis Week Speaker, who talked to the school. Reverend Benjamin Thomas was our speaker for the Christmas Assembly and Reverend Stuart Brightwell spoke at our Easter assembly.

Jr. — Sr. Reception

The theme of the Reception last spring was "Southern Serenade." Seniors, Juniors, Faculty and guests froliced on the lawn before the great plantation house. The myriad of southern stars in the night sky helped light the gala event. Couples strolled by the little pond under the blossom laden cherry branches.

Music Festival

Decatur was host to the musical Festival this year. The choirs and bands of the Decatur, Berne-French and Bluffton schools combined for an evening of unusual musical treat to music lovers of the three towns.

The combined choir was conducted by Mr. Morris Shadley, professor of music at Indiana University. The combined band played under the baton of Mr. Robert Mitchum, professor of band, Wabash College.

Football

This year Decatur High opened its season with coaches Worthman and Leitz taking the Jackets to participate in a Jamboree at Huntington.

In the first regular season game, the Jackets fell to defeat at the hands of a fine Penn team. The next week we were defeated by Auburn in the last half of the game, 14-0. The next foe for the Jackets was Garrett, the defending N.E.I.C. champs. Although it was a hard fought game, again we found ourselves on the short end of the score. We lost the next games to New Haven and Portland by fairly large scores.

Then came the traditional game between old rivals—Bluffton's Tigers and the Jackets. The game was hard fought, but the Tigers broke our two-year win string over them 12-7.

Columbia City defeated us in the next game, 33-0. In the next game the Jackets caught fire, but the Kendallville Comets squeaked by with a 20-18 win, scoring the winning points in the closing minutes. In the last game, our crippled Jackets fell under Concordia, 19-6.

Looking back over what seemed to be a long season, we find that the team won no games; we are not proud of this fact, but we are proud of the morale and character of the boys who kept their "noses to the grind-stone" under the continuous sting of defeat. We are also proud of these boys who played hard and held their heads high although they were rated as a poor team.

We are also proud of our coaches who taught the boys to play good, hard, and clean football—for it is this teaching that will prove invaluable years from now, when the scores have been long forgotten.

And we are confident that the underclass-men, received valuable training in the games this year, will gain sweet revenge for D.H.S., coach Bob and the graduated members of the team of "60."

Our basketball season opened with two stinging defeats, at the hands of Adams Central and Concordia. In the next three games the Jackets came to life by beating Geneva, losing a closely contested game to Berne, and trouncing Ossian. In our next four games, we turned a complete about-face and lost by large margins to Central Catholic, Columbia City, Bluffton and Bluffton again in the Holiday tourney. In the consolation game we defeated Portland.

The next games saw us being defeated by New Haven and winning a good game from Auburn. We were trounced by Monmouth in our poorest game of the season. In the next four games the Jackets started tuning up for the Sectional; however, we lost to Kendallville, Huntington, Angola, and Portland by close scores. We beat Elmhurst, were defeated in a close game by Garrett, and we trounced a big Winchester team in closing the regular season. The sectional saw us defeating Pleasant Mills, but losing by one point to the big Berne Bears in an overtime.

Track

The Decatur High School track team opened its season this year by receiving a defeat at the hands of Elmhurst. This was the first running on the newly remodeled track, which boasts a straight-a-way 220 yards. In the next meet a triangular held at Adams Central, the Jackets looked very strong in trouncing Adams Central and Hoagland. The next two meets saw Decatur losing 61 3/5 to 47 2/5 to Huntertown, and 90½ to 18½ to New Haven. In a triangular meet at Bluffton, we tied with Ossian for second place behind the strong Tigers. In the New Haven relays, we placed sixth among the eight schools participating. In the N.E.I.C. meet, only the half-mile relay team was able to win a ribbon for us.

Golf

The 1960 golf team had its troubles this season, but the future looks much brighter.

Returning lettermen next season will be Tom Cravens, Jim Hoffman, Thane Custer, and Zane Zwick.

Other members this season were Jack Dailey, Ron Highland, Larry Andrews, and Joe McNeerney.

Decatur was victorious against Decatur Catholic, Leo, and Monroeville. The Jackets were defeated by South Side, Concordia, and Central Catholic.

This year's team also participated in the N.E.I.A.C. and sectional matches.

COACH—Harry Dailey

Baseball

Soon after the close of the basketball season, Mr. McColly issued the call for baseball candidates. Because the weather still had a wintry nip to it, the candidates were forced to throw and condition themselves in the gymnasium. At the first glimpse of fair weather, they moved to Worthman Field and the new dugouts.

Mr. Abel, the "B" team coach, is assisting Mr. McColly with the varsity.

The schedule and scores of this season are as follows:

COACH—Bill McColly

Girls' Athletics

During the winter months the girls enjoyed playing intra-mural basketball.

In the spring keen competition was again evident as more than 120 girls, divided into 10 teams, battled to win trophies for their respective teams in volleyball intra-mural competition. The trophies will be given to each member of the winning team.

Captains of the teams are Janice Allison, Alice Allwein, Dee Schroeder, Kay Stoppenhagen, Paula Strickler, Donna Thieme, and Pam Walters.

The volleyball team participated in inter-school competition. These girls, coached by Mrs. Worthman, are fine representatives for D.H.S.

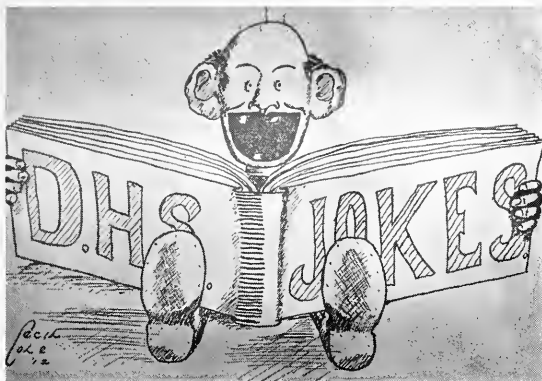

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL TEAM

Row 1: Diane Rhodes, Dee Schroeder, Alice Allwein, Jan Aumann, Penny Longerbone.

Row 2: Janice Allison, Donna Thieme, Pam Walters, Bonnie Fulton, Becky Maddox, Cassie Strickler. (Kay Stoppenhagen - absent).

Rebecca Worthman,
Coach

The "Joke" heading reproduced here is a copy of one of those used in 1914 and 1915. A page or more was devoted to jokes in each issue. In the early '30's the jokes were scattered among the ads, and then the number of jokes appeared in the "Ravelings" and they are left for such issues as "Gabfest" and "Jacket Journal."

HIGH SCHOOL BOOSTER—DEC. 25, 1911

Miss Williams: "Robert, you should not have laughed when you told your story."

Robert: "That's the first time I heard it."

RAVELINGS—1915

He: "Do you know that you are the very breath of my life?"

She: "Hold your breath."

Mr. Tritch: "Walter, how many studies are you carrying?"

Walter: "I'm carrying one and dragging three."

Mr. Penrod (in History): "Name some of the most important delegates at the Philadelphia convention."

Walter Krick: "Benjamin Franklin and the two Pickaninnies from the south" (Pinckneys).

The Agriculture Class is getting into practical work now. The other day they were trying to cross an eggplant with a milkweed to get a custard pie.

He: "Why do you rouge your lips?"

She: "To have them redder."

RAVELINGS—1918

Miss Rackstraw: "The chorus all have to sit on pine benches."

Mary Callow: "Why?"

Miss Rackstraw: "So they can get the pitch."

Miss Cravens: "The first edition of Wordsworth sold for $10,000."

Ralph Crill: "I'd sell mine for 10¢."

Helen Dugan: "Bob, did you notice the good looking fellow who sat across from us last night?"

Bob Frisinger: "The one with the blue suit, brown shoes and his hair combed pompador? No. Why?"

Miss Ossenberg (Making Chemistry assignment): "Take the first half of the chapter—we won't take arsenic today."

RAVELINGS—1913

Father: "Young man, do you study diligently at school?"

Son: "Nix! There ain't no such course at our school."

RAVELINGS—1925

Miss Myers: "Billie, what was the Tower of Babel?"

Billie Bell: "Wasn't that the place where Solomon kept his wives?"

Mr. Tyndall: "I'm getting some very rare work from the Freshmen."

Mr. Thorpe: "Rare?"

Mr. Tyndall: "Yes, not well done."

RAVELINGS—1931

"Mr. Ketchum," said the lady at the church bazaar, "Wouldn't you like to buy a bouquet to give to the girl you love?"

"That wouldn't be right," Mr. K. said, "I'm a married man."

Etta —

To my good-buddy—

Many goodies have happened since we met at that hoie.

Remember the Sports Club!!

The day we skipped with Joe + went to look at new cars.

The night we met Lon and Larry (Yum yum?)

And others to mention to mention, or too dangerous to

Good Luck to you + Jim + for the future.

P.S.

Don't forget your Paul appointment in To H. on

August. (Mrs Larry Butler)
just that nice?
